Bradley International Airport to Launch New, Nonstop Service to Miami with Frontier Airlines

Windsor Locks, CT – July 23, 2019 – The Connecticut Airport Authority (CAA) is pleased to announce the debut of new, nonstop service from Bradley International Airport to Miami on low-cost carrier Frontier Airlines.

“We’re delighted to expand our service in Hartford to four routes with the addition of new non-stop flights to Miami,” said Daniel Shurz, Senior Vice President of Commercial for Frontier Airlines. “Hartford residents have welcomed our low fares and friendly flying experience and we look forward to continuing our outstanding relationship with the airport and community.”

“We very much welcome Frontier Airlines’ expansion at Bradley International Airport and the addition of their nonstop service to Miami,” said Kevin A. Dillon, A.A.E, Executive Director of the Connecticut Airport Authority. “Their footprint has been growing exponentially at Bradley over the last four months and now includes four nonstops to popular destinations. We’re pleased to offer our passengers this additional travel option along with the high level of customer service that Frontier offers its customers. We look forward to our ongoing partnership with Frontier Airlines and the conveniences their low-cost model is bringing to our passengers.”

The service to Miami will commence on November 14, on an A320 Neo aircraft. It will be a seasonal flight and will operate on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Sundays.

Frontier Airlines currently operates flights to Denver, Orlando and Raleigh-Durham out of Bradley International Airport. The nonstop flight to Denver launched in March and operates year-round. The Orlando and Raleigh-Durham nonstop services launched in May and operate seasonally.

About Bradley International Airport

by Condé Nast Traveler in 2018. Bradley International Airport is operated by the Connecticut Airport Authority, and its operations are entirely self-funded. The airport contributes nearly $2.6 billion to the regional economy. For more info, visit www.flybdl.org.

About The Connecticut Airport Authority

The CAA was established in 2011 to develop, improve, and operate Bradley International Airport and the state's five general aviation airports (Danielson, Groton-New London, Hartford-Brainard, Waterbury-Oxford, and Windham). The CAA Board consists of 11 members with a broad spectrum of experience in aviation-related and other industries, as well as government. The goal of the CAA is to make Connecticut's airports more attractive to new airlines, bring in new routes, and support Connecticut's overall economic development and growth strategy.
