Bradley International Airport Opens Popular, National Brand “Natalie’s Candy Jar”

Grand Opening Celebrated Today on National Candy Day

Windsor Locks, CT, November 4, 2019 - The Connecticut Airport Authority is pleased to announce the opening of Natalie’s Candy Jar at Bradley International Airport – just in time for today’s National Candy Day.

“We are delighted to welcome Natalie’s Candy Jar to Bradley International Airport,” said Kevin A. Dillon, Executive Director of the Connecticut Airport Authority. “Natalie’s Candy Jar is a popular brand with a national footprint, making it a key addition to Bradley’s customer experience. The store’s unique and fun atmosphere coupled with the high quality of candy, sugar-free treats and gifts will be well-received by travelers of all ages.”

“We are excited and honored to become a part of the Bradley concession community and look forward to offering a large variety of merchandise unique to Natalie’s Candy Jar at Bradley International Airport,” said Cielo Taub, Managing Partner of Natalie’s Candy Jar.

Natalie’s Candy Jar mixes excitement and entertainment with high-quality offerings and a bright, colorful store. The self-serve candy store offers over 400 varieties of conventional, nostalgic, proprietary and hard-to-find candies, high-end chocolates and candy-related gift items.

The store features a large, bulk selection of chocolates, sours, gummies, jubes and jells, in addition to a generous assortment of sugar-free treats, nuts, health-conscious trail mixes, and bottled beverages.

In addition, high-quality, premium international and domestic boxed chocolates and other unique candy-related gift items are offered.

About The Connecticut Airport Authority

The CAA was established in 2011 to develop, improve, and operate Bradley International Airport and the state's five general aviation airports (Danielson, Groton-New London, Hartford-Brainard, Waterbury-Oxford, and Windham). The CAA Board consists of 11 members with a broad spectrum of experience in aviation-related and other industries, as well as government. The goal of the CAA is to make Connecticut's airports more attractive to new airlines, bring in new routes, and support Connecticut's overall economic development and growth strategy.
