Bradley International Airport to Debut New, Nonstop Service to Atlanta With Frontier Airlines

Windsor Locks, CT – April 6, 2021 – The Connecticut Airport Authority is pleased to announce the debut of new, nonstop service from Bradley International Airport (BDL) to Hartsfield-Jackson Atlanta International Airport (ATL) on Frontier Airlines.

“We’re delighted to announce new nonstop service between Hartford and Atlanta,” said Tyri Squyres, Vice President of Marketing, Frontier Airlines. “Our focus is delivering ‘Low Fares Done Right’ and this new service represents our continued commitment to affordable flying and expanding travel opportunities for Connecticut flyers.”

“We are excited to see Frontier Airlines expand their footprint at Bradley International Airport with the addition of new, nonstop service to Atlanta,” said Kevin A. Dillon, A.A.E, Executive Director of the Connecticut Airport Authority. “This added service strengthens our partnership with Frontier Airlines and builds on our commitment to offer more travel options to popular destinations on this renowned low-cost carrier. As we join the aviation industry on the road to recovery, we thank Frontier Airlines for their continued vote of confidence in Bradley International Airport.”

The service will commence on June 11, 2021, and will operate four times per week. To view flight times and booking information, please visit www.FlyFrontier.com.

With the debut of the new, nonstop service to Atlanta, Frontier Airlines will now offer five nonstop destinations from Bradley International Airport in summer 2021. The airline’s other destinations include Denver, Miami, Orlando, and Raleigh-Durham.

About Bradley International Airport

BDL Cares about your safety. In response to COVID-19, the airport has implemented new precautions, and was one of first airports in the nation to open an in-terminal COVID-19 testing site. Recently, the airport's efforts were recognized with a health accreditation from Airports Council International (ACI) World. Bradley International Airport is the second-largest airport in New England. The award-winning airport is operated by the Connecticut Airport Authority, and its operations are entirely self-funded. The airport contributes nearly $3.6 billion to the regional economy. For more info, visit www.flyBDL.org.

About The Connecticut Airport Authority

The CAA was established in 2011 to develop, improve, and operate Bradley International Airport and the state's five general aviation airports (Danielson, Groton-New London, Hartford-Brainard, Waterbury-Oxford, and Windham). The CAA Board consists of 11 members with a broad spectrum of experience in aviation-related and other industries, as well as government. The goal of the CAA is to make Connecticut's airports more attractive to new airlines, bring in new routes, and support Connecticut's overall economic development and growth strategy.
