Windsor Locks, CONN – December 12, 2023 – The Connecticut Airport Authority is pleased to announce that low-cost carrier Breeze Airways will be launching nonstop seasonal service between Bradley International Airport (BDL) and Orlando International Airport (MCO). The flight will operate three times a week.

Additionally, Breeze will offer service between BDL and John-Wayne Airport (SNA) in Santa Ana, CA. The flight will operate five days a week as part of the airline’s BreezeThru service, which includes one stop, but passengers do not have to change planes.

Both new routes will start on May 29, 2024 with fares starting from just $59* one way using the airline’s Airbus A220 aircraft.

“We appreciate Breeze’s continued partnership in bringing low-fares and so many convenient travel options to Bradley International Airport passengers,” said Kevin A. Dillon, A.A.E., Connecticut Airport Authority Executive Director. “The new nonstop to Orlando and BreezeThru to Santa Ana are terrific additions to the airline’s growing footprint at the airport.”
